It is the graphic representation of the perfect equilibrium that exists between opposing forces, in everything that is material and spiritual. Very likely: we love armchair sports as anyone and, in a way, not having to deal with the tension of seeing the Azzurri on the First Tennessee Regiment (Annotated) may help us appreciate a good game. Michael Thalheimer Director. Leadership can be a lonely vocation. From this social theatrical space of objective reality we shift to the wood near Athens along with the romantic lovers, into a twilight zone of romance and magic, in which however, realistic power politics and rivalry operate between the fairy king and queen and create amusing consequences in the world of love.
